Race 1

#6 Gold Star Aurora- Has struggled making her normal brush over her last few starts but already beat this company earlier in the year.

#4 Ms Casey Mac- Likes to be forwardly placed early on and with a short field here she may be leaving the gate like a rocket.

#5 Rear View- She may have to deal with speed outside of her tonight early on but she may be able to rally late for minors.

Race 2

#1 Sweet Royalty- Takes a drop in class here tonight and flashed wicked early speed here last week, just has to ration out his speed to win.

#3 L Dees Courageous- Makes the 4th start out tonight for the new connections and has already proven he has talent, needs to mind his manners early.

#4 Cinnabar Hall- Likes to do his best work from off the pace late and has a lot of speed inside of him early, perfect trip could payoff here.

Race 3

#6 The Big Muscle- Ships in from Vernon off a nice closing victory last out and looks to be finding his best form after a long layoff.

#8 Vicki All- May be forced to leave the gate fast from the outside here if she wants to play a part and was a solid 3rd here last week.

#1 Choochoocharlie- Races best when forwardly placed early on but tends to want to stop on the end of the mile, minors again tonight.

Race 4

#4 Motown N- Takes yet another drop in class tonight after being involved in an accident on the far turn last week, should crush tonight.

#6 Time Out I'M Tired- Has struggled to find his back class here in 2019 and takes a drop down in class tonight as well, up near the front early here.

#1 Tangled Mind- He likes to make a brushing move near the 3/4 mile mark but has two Open pacers to deal with tonight, up for minors late in the stretch.

Race 5

#5 Meadowbranch Vicki- Dropped in to this class last week after facing tougher at Harrah's and got the job done, repeat in the work here.

#7 Bat Chip Crazy- Improved a lot in his last start out here when he chased better and if he improves again he will be close late.

#4 President- Has struggled with some breaking issues in 2019 but does show signs of ability, has to stay on stride to play a part late.

Race 6

#2 Rocknroll Captain- The last time he was here he drew off to win by 8 lengths and if he gets an easy lead tonight they will be chasing late.

#1 Sociable- I did not like the trip this one had here last week as he was locked in with pace until late in the stretch, value play in the trifecta here.

#5 Runhappy Ten- Has shown some furious late kick in deep stretch and if they go fast up front early on he will be the one to watch in the late stages.

Race 7

#5 Rollingndiamonds- She is down in class tonight and has not flashed her early speed in quite some time, change of tactics against cheaper tonight.

#4 Gemalous- Is a victim of a bad trip every once in a while and races best from out of a hole late, pocket ride would be the best bet for her here.

#2 Lulu De Vie- Showed two giant qualifiers at Monticello and then had two very bad trips after that, the stretch to a bigger track should help.

Race 8

#1 Blurred Lines- She has wicked early speed to offer and draws a favorable rail post to work from tonight, makes the 2nd start out for the new barn.

#6 Thank The Bank- Has been closing with effort the last few starts out and if the pace is fast early on she could steal the show late.

#4 Lusty Delight- She beat this similar company here earlier in the year and was throwing in some giant miles just a month ago.

Race 9

#4 Goldstar Rockette- She has the best early gate speed of any horse in the race and if she can get the lead with ease early on she will go wire to wire.

#2 Marvalous Jet- Likes to make a first over move nearing the half mile mark and if she gets cover tonight she will be deadly in the stretch.

#8 Prairie Easter- Has won 2 of her last 4 starts out and is razor sharp right now, has to deal with the outside post though tonight.

Race 10

#6 Truth And Liberty- Showed her class last week digging in after some wicked early fractions, sharpest horse in the field prior to tonight.

#5 Gigi From Fiji- Has beaten the top choice in here more than once this year but only seems to race well when pointed to the lead early.

#4 Gold Star Mysti- May be the most versatile horse in the field and over the last three weeks she has found her better form as well.

Race 11

#4 Grey Ice- Exploded from out of a hole here late last week and I think he can race from any spot on the track and get the job done again tonight.

#2 Soho Hanover- Always has a breaking issue while racing and takes a drop in class tonight against cheaper looking to improve.

#6 Gifted Way- Has back class to his credit from last year and has been lightly raced this year with just 10 starts, up for minors late.

Race 12

#3 Mr Big Bucks- Will be able to make an easy lead tonight from an inside post and if the fractions are slow early he should wire this field.

#1 P L Mccracken- Has hit the board in 4 of 8 starts this year and that is a pretty good resume considering he broke in two starts as well.

#4 Im An Art Major- Likes to come flying from off the pace late and the only way he can win this is with a speed duel in front of him early on.
