Race 1

#2 Repeal Or Replace- His last start out at Saratoga was very impressive and he might be starting to find his better form.
#4 Sociable- His first lifetime start at Vernon he dug in late and he may improve a lot here in his 2nd start out.
#3 Art Nukem- Always finds a way to hit the ticket late and has not been worse than 3rd in 7 lifetime starts.

Race 2

#3 Darbie's Ideal- Won with ease last out with a brush and crush effort at Vernon and will try to do the same here today.
#6 Rollnthejoe- His last two starts were his best and if he gets an easy lead here today he could take them wire to wire.
#4 Trevor One- Has already handled a 5/8 mile oval down at Pocono well so he has a slight edge against these coming into today.

Race 3

#3 Groovey Joe- Was on cruise control down the stretch here last week and looks for his 7th victory of his career already here today.
#1 Cigars And Port- Put his best effort in last out at Vernon and with an inside post he can save a lot of ground off the gate early on.
#5 Major Betts- Has all the early speed in this field but the fractions early on will determine his fate late in this one.

Race 4

#6 Sunsetboozecruise- Has won 5 of 7 starts on the year and it would all be credit to his giant early gate speed at the start.
#7 Ideal Perception- Has been razor sharp in his last two starts out and the only concern coming into today is the far outside post.
#1 Breakout Session- Likes to chase the pace in front of him late but may only be able to get up for minors late today.

Race 5

#5 Freedom Warrior- Was a wrapped up winner here last week and if he minds his manners he is the bet of the day here at Tioga.
#1 Splash Brother- May need a mile track to show his best work but has a lot of speed to get off the gate and secure position with.
#3 American Rebel- Has won his last two starts out with ease and will face his toughest class test here today.

Race 6

#9 Hurrikane Kingkong- Has been facing much tougher prior to today and will be forced to flash his early speed with the far outside post today.
#7 KJ Erich- Is taking a big drop in class here and he may be the most versatile horse in the field, can close if needed.
#6 You Said It- Found some of his back class here last week putting the swoop to the group and steps up in class today looking to prove himself.

Race 7

#7 Notabadgame- Ships in from Batavia after racing Open company and maybe the stretch to a bigger track helps him here today.

#5 Pointsman- Was able to dig in for 2nd last week after chasing the entire mile which proves to me that he is razor sharp right now.
#1 Stick With Cramer- Likes to come from off the pace and with an inside post he can save all the ground he wants and make one big move late.

Race 8

#5 Andreios Kardia- He had to drop down last week after struggling against similar but has beaten this company in his prior efforts at Tioga.
#4 Rockntouch- Likes to come from off the pace if able but may be forwardly placed today as the top choice in here beat him last week.
#3 Joe Joe Joe- Did not look his best for his first start out in the new barn last week and I expect him to be a lot sharper this week.

Race 9

#8 Lauxmont Capri- Has struggled with some bad trips over his last few starts out but has to show early speed from the outside against these.
#3 Sporty Redhot- Exploded late here last week after struggling down the backside and always manages to find another gear late.
#6 The Spy- Does his best work when near the lead early on and if the fractions are slow early on he will be in the ticket.

Race 10

#1 Time Out I'M Tired- He keeps drawing a favorable post and has not shown us his best effort yet, don't let the lines deceive you cause he can best these.
#3 Kotare Yael- Was a good third to two better horses last week and neither of them are in this field here today, may prove best.
#5 Motown N- Has lots of early speed to offer but the break in stride last week at the start could be a big concern coming into today.

Race 11

#1 Mr Big Bucks- Has been claimed several times this year due to his big early gate speed and will be the one to catch nearing the half mile mark.
#7 Ascot Encounter A- Has won with ease in his last two starts out and seems to only get better each week here at Tioga.
#5 Freak On A Leash- Has raced best when near the front end early on but has other speed that he will have to contend with today.

Race 12

#5 Road Untraveled- Has found his back class for the same barn he was in a few years ago and may be the one to beat in this short field.
#1 Mach Stockn Barrel- Loves to make one move late and the inside post may be the best spot for him to race from in any race.
#4 Rockin The House- Has lots of back class to his credit and more than likely will be leaving the gate fast early on against these.
