

09/01/2019

Race 1

#2 P L Mccracken- Made the 2nd start out for the barn a winning one and he should only improve more here today.
#3 Rocknroll Captain- Has dug in against similar as of late at Vernon and the short field will keep him in it late.
#1 Pure Sunshine- Has hit the board in 6 of 12 starts this year but is yet to see the winners circle in 2019.

Race 2

#4 Choochoocharlie-Takes a big drop in class tonight and comes in off a three week layoff, one to beat if he gets the lead.
#6 Commentary- Chased much better here earlier in the year and the win last out may help build his confidence.
#2 Law Of Attraction- Draws a much better post tonight after being a solid 2nd last week, should be close late here.

Race 3

#5 Asplode Hanover- Has been facing tougher as of late at Pocono and has a lot of speed to offer, makes the first start out for the new barn.
#2 Tangled Mind- He has all the speed and the ability to get the job done here he just has to mind his manners while racing.
#1 Shiplap- Does his best work from off the pace late and with an inside post he will be able to save a lot of ground early on.

Race 4

#3 Vicki All- She takes a solid drop down in class tonight and the last time she faced similar she made it look easy.
#4 Phoenician- Was not himself here in his last start out and knows how to grind it out on the outside if needed.
#2 Cashahallic- Has lots of early speed to offer and if the fractions are slow up front early on he could steal the show.

Race 5

#3 Persist Blue Chip- Will more than likely be the sole early speed in this field and already has 4 wins in 2019 as well.
#5 Fashion Dragon- Makes the 2nd start out today for the new barn and never had a shot last week with the far outside post.
#1 Scholz- Likes to come from off the pace late and with a 2nd over trip turning for home he could be the one to watch late.

Race 6

#5 Southwind Blizzard- Takes yet another drop in class today but has to stay on gait if he wants to get his 3rd win of 2019.
#6 L Dees Courageous- Makes the first start out today for the new connections and was facing tougher at the Meadows prior.
#8 Hanrahan- Has lots of back class to his credit but where he lands off the gate will play a huge part in where he will finish today.

Race 7

#7 Groovey Kid- Comes in off a slight layoff but was facing tougher company prior and has lots of early speed if he wants to use it.

#2 Cinnabar Hall- The inside post will help him secure position early on and he will make one run late at the leaders.
#4 Lady Macbeth- Likes to get cover while racing down the backside and if the fractions are fast early on she can steal the show late.

Race 8

#4 Beguin Degoutier F- Was an untouched easy winner here last week and if they dont press him early on he will go wire to wire again.
#8 Troller- Has struggled with some breaking issues for the new barn but has a big mark of 155.1 last year at Saratoga.
#7 Jett Star- The far outside post will hurt him a little off the gate but he always makes a solid rally late to get up for minors.

Race 9

#6 Joey Pro- Was outclassed in his last start here but the 3 starts prior to that he was razor sharp, 2 week layoff coming into today.
#2 Jack Rules- Will leave hard from the inside early on to secure position and if he gets the pocket he could make them pay late.
#5 Rose Run Rudi- Has been facing Open company all year long here and only knows how to race one way and that is near the front end.

Race 10

#2 Eldorado Of Gold S- Made it look easy in deep stretch here last week with giant strides and looks to make it two in a row today.
#5 QB Kemp- Has a solid late closing kick and if he is near the lead late they may not be able to outkick him in the stretch.
#4 Six Bax- He has a lot of back class to his credit but if he is going to be a part of this one he needs to be near the lead early on.

Race 11

#6 Cayenne Victory- Has made it look easy in her last two starts out here and if she gets the lead she is the one to beat.
#5 Captain Thomas- Made a miscue at the start here last week and never had a chance but was favored at even money by the public.
#4 JAS Going Away- Likes to make a late rally on the far turn every week but may not be as fast as the top two in here.
